To ensure you get the most out of your camp experience please take the time to let us know a bit about what you and your horse do together.

Using Facilities at Coxleigh Barton – Disclaimer

- All horses attending camp must be fully vaccinated
- No persons may ride on the Cross Country course alone.
- Body protectors adhering to current British Standards must be worn at all times whilst mounted when using the Cross country course.
- Current safety standard riding hats must be worn at all times whilst mounted and whilst handling Horses.
- Any damage caused to a Cross Country fence, show jump or any property must be reported to the instructor and office.
- Riders deemed to be riding dangerously will be asked to dismount and leave the course or the arena.
- All droppings must be removed immediately from the arena and public areas.
- Any accidents must be reported and an accident form completed in the office.
- I understand there may be chance to go on an escorted hack. Coxleigh will provide an escort purely on a directional basis to ensure you do not get lost and to provide you with some information about the area in which you are riding. They will not be a qualified instructor so cannot offer any form or instruction or assistance during the ride. Riders ride entirely at their own risk. Coxleigh will assume no liability for any accidents or injuries sustained when hacking.

The Horse Rider's Code of Conduct

- I understand that riding at any standard has inherent risk and that all horses may react unpredictably on occasions.
- I may fall off and could be injured. I accept that risk.
- I understand that instructions are given for my safety and I agree the instructions must be followed. I understand that if I refuse to follow such instructions, I may be asked to leave the camp.
- I understand that wearing an appropriate riding hat and body protector may reduce the severity of an injury should an accident happen and agree that I will always wear a riding hat whilst riding and handling my horse.
- I understand that competing carries enhanced risk over and above general riding and agree that if I chose to participate in any competition or event, there is a risk of injury in the event of an accident.
- I accept it is my responsibility to provide an equine first aid kit for the duration of my stay at Coxleigh Barton.
- I accept that it is my responsibility to inform the organisers/staff members of Coxleigh Barton of any vices or behavioural issues inherent in the Horse I will be riding, and to advise if I need assistance in any particular aspect of caring for my horse whilst staying at Coxleigh Barton.

Use of the equestrian facilities at Coxleigh Barton are carried out at entirely your own risk. No liability will be accepted for any injury, loss or damage suffered, whether occasioned by the negligence or breach of contract statutory duty of the owners, their servants, agents, employees or those connected with the Equestrian facilities. We advise that every rider holds public liability and personal insurance.

I consent to receiving any medical treatment, which, in the opinion of a qualified first aider, may be necessary.

I agree to the terms set out above.
